

About the Cumberland Valley School of Music

Founded in 1990, the non-profit CVSM is a member of the National Guild of Community Schools of the Arts. Our 55 highly qualified faculty members serve over 600 students per year at locations in Chambersburg, Waynesboro, Mercersburg, and Hagerstown. We offer private and group lessons in all orchestral and band instruments, voice, and theatrical techniques as well as numerous classes, workshops, summer camps, and performance opportunities for students of all ages, and sponsor the Cumberbunds (a youth chorus), the CVSM Community Symphonic Band; the CVSM Concert Jazz Band; the CVSM Community String Orchestra; and other ensembles. Last year, over 500 students performed in recitals, and CVSM faculty and students performed at hundreds of venues in the area. We offer a full range of outreach programs to schools and senior centers, and schedule numerous events and concerts. Scholarships are awarded based on financial need and merit. We also operate the CVSM Music Store (located on the 2nd floor of Thomson Hall on the Wilson College campus), where all instrument sales and rentals help support the school's music education programs.

Visit the CVSM Website for more information about our community school of music, our classes and lessons, summer day camps, special performances and opportunities for greater involvement:
